Section 0: New Information

For listening and video links, go to Tinyurl <https://tinyurl.com/SDLA-Pronunciation>. Find your SDLA number on the left and all the resources to finish your SDLA will be on the right.

Listen to these words. Imagine how your tongue and mouth need to move to correctly pronounce them. Then write the words below in the correct sound columns. Using an online dictionary, like m-w.com, can help you.

pear chair far large aren't start there upstairs department hairdresser farmer park compare hardware heart guard declare garden tear*(verb)

âr sounds on this side

är sounds on this side

Section 1: Listening

Listen to this news article. While you listen, highlight the words that the speaker mispronounces. Write the words that you heard below the mispronounced words. You will also hear words with sounds from the previous SDLAs.

Cryotherapy – News Article

Whole Body Cryotherapy is New York’s latest health and fitness trend, which charges up the metabolism and helps the body carefully heal itself.

This particular therapy, which was first generated in Japan and Europe where several people have used it for over twenty years, means that you have to submerge yourself in sharp low temperatures of -130 degrees Celsius.

Cryotherapy works by preparing the brain to believe that the body is freezing, which then causes the body to go into survival mode and begins to send blood, enriched with oxygen, enzymes and nutrients, to the body's core and heart.

In one of New York's spas, customers pay an alarming 90 US dollars for a bare three-minute treatment. They wear a bathing suit, socks and gloves to protect themselves from scary frostbite while liquid nitrogen is used to cool the air in the chamber.

Section 2: Repetition

On your cell phone, record yourself reading the paragraph from Section 1 correctly. Save it.

Listen with your eyes closed. Can you understand what you said? Which words are difficult to understand? Write them here.

Optional: Record a second time the correct sentences. Listen with your eyes closed. You can ask a friend to listen with their eyes closed. Can they understand every word? Write down which ones your friend could not understand. Practice those words more.

Section 3: Senses

The âr sounds exactly like when we make the r consonant sound. To make this sound, we pull our tongue up and back without letting it touch the top of our mouth and open our lips slightly.

âr

1. Here is how the âr sound looks from the front.
2. The sound starts like the ě sound with the lips opened slightly while stretched to the sides
3. Then you create the r sound like the picture to the left <<<<<

är

When we make the är sound:

1. Begin by opening your mouth in a circle like ö
2. Then you create the r sound... this will make you sound like a pirate!

Part 2. Record yourself reading these words. See Section 2 for your recording choices. Make sure you feel your mouth move sideways for âr and like a circle for är.

apartment charm dairy farther bare marbles fare margin charge scarce

Section 4: Conversation Practice

Read the conversation below. Are there any words you don't understand? Look them up in a dictionary. Practice reading this to yourself. Practice as both speakers. You will practice this conversation with the tutor later. Concentrate on the pronunciation of the individual words.

- Mary Pardon me. Is there a coffee bar near here?
- Clerk A coffee bar? No, sorry. This isn't a very large airport. But there's a cafeteria over there near the security check.
- Mary Oh, wow. Really? OK, thanks for your help. I'm going upstairs. Are you coming dear? (to Aaron)
- Aaron No. I'm tired. I'm going to find a comfortable chair and stay here where there's more space.
- Mary Well, I'm parched. I need to have a beverage to quench my thirst.
- Aaron Go ahead, sugar bear. I'll keep your seat warm right over here while you're gone.
- Mary Don't fall asleep! You need to take care of our carryon bags. Airports are dangerous.

Section 5: What Did I Learn?

Now that you've completed sections 1 through 4, rate how well you can do the following. Put an "X" in the box matching your self-assessment. This will help the tutor assist you better.
