How to Use NoodleTools

NoodleTools is a web-based application that allows you to create and edit MLA works cited lists, APA reference lists, or Chicago/Turabian lists online. NoodleTools helps you understand what information is important to cite and how to cite it. NoodleTools takes care of punctuation and produces a source list that is formatted and ready to print or to be exported into your writing assignments.

1. Getting Started – Creating an Account

- Go to NoodleTools homepage: https://www.noodletools.com
- Click the Login link in the right-hand corner.
- To create an account click on Register and follow the instructions.

Subscription Information:

- School: WCmtsac
- Password: password

2. Creating a New Project

• Click the New Project button on the top left side of the screen.

+ New Project

- Choose a Project Title (example: ENGL 1A- Genetically Modified Foods).
- Select a Citation style (MLA, APA, or Chicago).
- Choose Advanced as the citation level (for College and University use).
- Click Submit.

3. Adding Sources

- Click the green New Source button on the top right of the page.
- Choose where you accessed your source (for example, a library database).
- Choose the correct source type from the chart that appears.
- Fill in required information about the source (author, title of source, title of article, etc.)

When you click in each field, a pop-up box will appear to provide you with tips about the correct citation format (what to include, what to capitalize, etc.). You will also see a small yellow caution symbol appear if NoodleTools detects an error.

• Click Submit when you are finished with the form.

4. Editing and Exporting

- Select the "3 dots" button to edit, copy, or delete the entry.
- Use the In-text reference link for help on citing the source within the body of your paper (parenthetical reference).
